INSURING HEALTH

Why do you continue to pay out large doctors' bills for the treatment of all the common ai ments to which a person is subject from time to time? You are taken ill with some slight ailment, and although you know what the matter is, you have nothing on hand to relieve or cure you, and nine times out of ten you let it run until it developes into some dangerous chronic disease. Then you are compelled to call a physician, and after a long spell of sickness you finally 'pull through,'' (some time you wont) and find that you have a large doctor bill to settle. No matter what the ailment is, whether it be a hard cold, dysentry, colic, fever, biliousness, kidney troubles, headache, cuts, burns, or what, the time to cure it is on the start, before it has become seated. And therefore, we would urge you, for your own safety and for the safety of your family, to have a supply of our medicines constantly where you can get them and use them when these slight ailments appear.

And now, just a word for our medicines. We believe, and the many unsolicited testimonials we are constantly receiving bear witness to the fact, that they are the best medical science has produced. They are not the production of incompetent brains, put on the market "for revenue only,'' but are the result of years of careful experiments, and are placed on the market and enjoy a large sale through their merits only. We have not filled our almanac with a lot of uninteresting "testimonials'' originating in the brain of an advertising agent, but have placed herein a few genuine words of praise, just as we have received them. We have hundreds more you can have for the asking.

All dealers handle our medicines, and will gladly supply you with all the information regarding them you may wish.

THE SENSIBLE

COUGH CURE

There are kinds of cough remedies which are as bad as the coughs they are intended to cure. They stop the cough sometimes, but they do it by doing just what a cough cure should not do, and that is to dry up the secretions and to stifle the cough by means of opiates.

A real cough cure should stimulate the secretions, heal the inflamed surface, and cure by removing the cause.

Made Her Hair Grow

Shepard, Mich., May 8, 1903

L. Perrigo Co.

Dear Sirs:—My son bought part of a bottle of your Sure Liniment. I had rheumatism in my head and used it several times and it helped me in two ways, by driving away the pain, and by making my hair grow, which had scarcely covered my head for twenty years. I have had to cut it short to save any of it, as it was so thin. It is getting quite thick and new hair is coming in all the time.

Yours respectfully,

MRS. L. MCGRATE

His Sympathy

A Chicago lady who had a birthday recently received as a present from one of her friends a $10 bill. Accompaning the money was a note in which the writer, after explaining that she couldn't think of anything tasteful to buy and had therefore sent the cash, made some tender references to bygone days and dear old scenes. While the recipient was sitting with the bill in one hand and the letter in her other, and permitting tears to drip down upon both, her little son went up to her, and putting his arms around her neck tenderly asked:

"What's the matter, mamma? Isn't the money good?"

Costly Cass County Kisses

The pretty daughter of a Cass county farmer offered four kisses to the farm hand who would do the most work in two days last week, and before night three men had been prostrated by heat.

She Got The Potatoes

The man who forgets the obligations in the way of shopping imposed upon him by the women of his family when he leaves the house is not rare enough to excite curiosity, but the woman with sufficient tact and wit checkmate this loss of memory is. One such says that she had labored for several days to impress upon her husband the necessity of sending home a bag of potatoes.

At last, when all her persuasions and injunctions had failed, she surprised him one morning by handing him a sealed letter, and asking him, with great seriousness, not to open it until he reached his place of business. All the way downtown he thought of the strange request, and he no sooner entered his office than he tore open the letter. This is what he read:

"Dear John—For sometime past I have thought long and earnestly on what I have to say to you, and I have decided that this is the best method to communicate it. I have hesitated several times about writing to you in this way, but I can not conceal my thoughts longer. I must and will tell you all."

Here John's hair began to rise, but he heroically turned over the page and read on: "The potatoes have been out for a week. Please send home a bushel. I thought by this method you would not be likely to forget."

The potatoes went up to the house that morning.

Nothing That Equals It

Three Rivers, Mich., June 27, 1904

L. Perrigo Co.:

Several years ago a man by the name of Glasgow kept in his store "L. Perrigo's Bitters." During that time I was never without it in the house. I found it the best of remedies. I have never been able to get it since, so I thought I would write to you and see if you still made the same, and also to find out if you would send me half a dozen bottles. If this reaches you all right, please let me know. And if you want money in advance, let me know what a half dozen would cost. I would be more than glad to get the medicine once more, as I have never had anything that equals it. Hoping this will reach you all right, and also to hear from you soon, I am very Respectfully yours,

WM. J. ASH.

Afraid of a Concussion

"Smith is walking around today as if he was walking on eggs."

"He needs to."

"What ails him?"

"Why, last night after he had gone to bed he remembered that he should have taken some quinine capsules. He got up in the dark and took 'em. This morning he discovered that he had swallowed three 22 caliber revolver cartridges."

Put His Foot in It That Time

"There is nothing in the world that I would not do for you, darling." he protested rapturously.

"Oh, really, Ned?" responded the delighted girl. "Then you will go with me down to Spot & Cashem's bargain sale."

But before she had finished speaking the sweet girls face turned pale. The young man had already fled.

Mishawaka, Ind., Aug. 1899.

L. Perrigo Co., Allegan, Mich.

Gentlemen—I had a high-bred colt, three years old, that got run down and out of condition, and I could not get anything to help him. I had several veterinary surgeons look at him and had medicine from three or four, but he kept running down and finally got so that we could not get him off from a slow walk with a whip. He went around the yard with his head down, and would not eat or drink enough to hardly keep him alive. I considered him almost worthless and offered to sell him for $50. I heard about your Veterinary Elixir and bought a 50 cent bottle and commenced feeding it to him. Before I got one-half of the bottle used up he commenced to run around the yard, and we had hard work to catch him to get him in the stable at night. And when I had feed him the whole bottle he was all right in every way, and I have since refused $300 for him. I would not be without it if it cost $25 a bottle instead of 50 cents. Yours,

JACOB BUCHHEIT

A Sad Libel

Blobbs—What nonsense it is for the newspapers in their account of weddings to describe the bride being led to the altar.

Slobbs—Why so?

Blobbs—Well, most girls could find their way there in the dark.

Why He Became Tired

Mr. Grumpps—I wonder why I become so terrible tired sitting in a church pew.

Mrs. Grumpps—Probably because the services do not include a ballet.

Mothers Comfort

Little Pearl's baby sister had died before it was a week old, and sorrow reigned in the home. Pearl had not seen much of the new baby, but was just as grieved as the rest of the household. After the funeral, however, she seemed to think it was her duty to comfort her mother, who was much shocked one day to hear Pearl say:

"Mamma, I wouldn't cry if I were you. I think God only sent that baby on approval, anyway."

Philosophical

Lady (in registry office)—I am afraid that that little girl won't do for a nurse. She is too small. I would hesitate to trust her with the baby.

Clerk—Her size, madam, is her greatest recommendation.

Lady—Indeed, but she is so very small.

Clerk—I know that she is diminutive, but you should remember that when she drops the baby it doesn't have so far to fall.

No Excuse for Waste

"I understand that your father has discovered a very rich oil well on his land," said George.

"Yes," Ethel answered pettishly. "But we ought not to be extravagant on that account."

And he must have agreed with her, for he turned the lamp down.

His Honey Was Gone

A country newspaper man, who was very fond of honey, visited a neighboring city and at one of the hotels he was served with some most delicious honey. He enjoyed it so much that he told his wife all about it when he returned home. On his next trip to the city she accompanied him. They visited the same hotel, and when the noon meal was served he said to his wife that he hoped they had some more of that honey. It didn't appear, however, and the newspaper man, therefore, beckoning to a waiter, said: "Say, Sambo, where is my honey?" He was almost paralyzed when that worthy grinned and replied: "She doan work here no more, boss, she done got a job at the silk mill." The wife received a handsome new dress before they returned home, after making a solemn promise not to tell the story.

Is undoubtedly the greatest Horse Medicine ever produced, and is the only liquid iron and quinine tonic for stock made. It is a prompt and reliable cure for

Worms, Urinary Troubles,
Looseness of the Bowels, General Skin Diseases,
Loss of Appetite, Indigestion, etc.

It enriches the blood and makes a new animal of a worn-out, run-down horse. Overwork and poor feeding are easily corrected by its use, and it is of great value to every farmer. The dose is small and the use of one bottle as directed, will propuce beneficial results. For mares in foal it is not only perfectly harmless but especially beneficial.

Isaac Yoder, of Yoder, Kansas, says: "I have used and sold a great many different horse medicines, but never handled one that gave as good satisfaction as Bartram's Veterinary Elixir. I consider it a great blessing to horse flesh."

Claude Teachout of Brooklyn, Mich., says: "I consider Bartram's Veterinary Elixir the best medicine on earth for a horse "

Willing To Oblige

An unkempt looking fellow stopped at a suburban residence and asked for employment. The lady of the house, who at that moment was superintending the removal of some house plants, emerged from the greenhouse and asked him if he was a gardener.

"I ain't had much experience," was the reply.

"Well, can you plant these shrubs?"

"I shouldn't like to risk spoiling 'em, ma'am."

"Well, what can you do?"

"Well ma'am" he replied meditatively, "if you will give me one of your husband's cigars, I'll sit in the greenhouse and smoke out the insects that's eating up the leaves of them rosebushes."

SPRING FEVER

SPRING FEVER is considered a joke—when someone else has it—but the condition is in reality no joke. Spring Fever is one of the terms applied to that general relaxed condition of the system, which is so common at this season. It indicates, as a rule, a loss of vitality and a disordered condition of the blood. An effectual remedy should be used, because this condition readily becomes chronic.
